RESOLUTION NO. 123
Resolution declaring the County of Atlantic a Second Amendment/Lawful Gun Owner County
Freeholder Gatto moved and Freeholder Bertino seconded a motion to declare the County of Atlantic a Second Amendment/Lawful Gun Owner County (Sponsored by: Ernest D. Coursey, Public Safety Committee Chair).

Janet Younghaus, resident of Upper Township and representing Atlantic/Cape May Chapter of Moms Demand Action for Guns Sense in America, cited a letter from the NJ Attorney General regarding Second Amendment groups and his position. She also stated that Gloucester County Freeholder’s did not take a position. (opposed to Resolution No. 123).

Kristie Triper, resident of Egg Harbor City and member of Moms Demand Action for Guns Sense in America, stated she reviewed the 44 bills considered anti-gun legislation and found that not all the bills were anti-gun bills (opposed to Resolution No. 123).

Retired Sergeant Jose Santiago, resident of Atlantic City and veteran, stated he is a pro-Second Amendment democrat who was attacked when he was a young man (in support of Resolution No. 123).
Matthew Johnson, resident of Vineland, responded to comments made by the first speaker. He stated the resolution does not include the word “sanctuary”. Secondly, he found the Attorney General’s letter condemning “sanctuary” ironic since he violates law by trying to implement a State sanctuary (in support of Resolution No. 123).

Mary Slomine, resident of Margate, stated only five gun bills are before the NJ legislature, not 44 bills. If you have not read the bills how can you vote on them. Paragraph eight refers to the word “legal” means. Requested the Board to modify the resolution to change 44 bills to five bills and remove “legal means from paragraph eight (opposed to Resolution No. 123).

Mico Lucidio, resident of Mays Landing, stated the language “legal means is confusing (opposed to Resolution No. 123).

Maureen Leidy, resident of Ventnor, stated you are using taxpayers’ dollars because you are here, listening, and researching. We pay your salary and this is what you are spending our money on which is totally unnecessary (opposed to Resolution No. 123).

James Denny, resident of Mays Landing, stated he is a gun owner. People that are anti-gun people distort statistics (opposed to Resolution No. 123).

Robert Taylor, resident of Mays Landing, stated that people in New Jersey are lucky because there are places in this Country you can walk in with a valid driver’s license and purchase a gun.

John Walsh, resident of Northfield, stated he is a legal gun owner and there is confusion between a legal gun owner and a criminal. Gun owners want safe communities (in support of Resolution 123).

David Livingston, resident of Ventnor, stated he addressed the Ventnor City Commissioner and they are not going to consider the issue because it is a jurisdictional matter (opposed to Resolution No. 123).

Roger Dutch, resident of Absecon, stated the Board was sworn to protect the Constitution if they don’t vote yes on the Resolution they are not upholding their oaths (in support of Resolution No. 123)

Diane Bectol, resident of Margate, stated the found fathers had limited vision to living in the 21st century (opposed to Resolution No. 123).

Susan Lasargic, resident of Mays Landing, stated she is a gun owner but asked the Board not vote on this resolution (opposed to Resolution No. 123)

Guy Smith, resident of Northfield, stated the Second Amendment is the law and self-protection is important. The purpose of this resolution is to send a message to Trenton (in support of Resolution No. 123).

Michael Suillerman, Galloway Township resident, stated he is a gun owner and enjoys a safe environment. Does this protect my rights as a gun owner or prevent my guns being taken away?

Christopher Syler, resident of Egg Harbor Twp., stated this would be a great resolution to support (in support of Resolution No. 123).

Eva Smith, resident of Linwood, stated if someone doesn’t understand what is being said today is creating confusion and puts people at risk (opposed to Resolution No. 123)
Jim Casus, resident of Egg Harbor Township, stated he is Hispanic, a veteran, gun owner and a Democrat, spoke about the legislation and the guns that were legal and will become illegal (in support of Resolution No. 123).

Lee Diamond, resident of Margate, stated that this is necessary and that we live in a highly polarized society and this resolution is not healthy for our civic order (opposed to Resolution No. 123).

Ken Stytler, resident of Egg Harbor Township, stated that he would like to see Resolution No. 123 passed. The more municipalities that pass the resolution is sends our voice to the State (in support of Resolution No. 123).

Jennifer Areeya, resident of Absecon, stated she tries to promote what is family friendly in our area and this resolution does not send a message that we are family friendly (opposed to Resolution No. 123).

Jean Meeker, resident of Egg Harbor Township, stated that she had spoken to several State legislators in District One, Two and Nine who have supported the Second Amendment group (in support of Resolution No. 123).

Chrissy Roach, resident of Longport, stated her friend was shot and killed by an evil person. She is a proud Second Amendment American (in support of Resolution No. 123)

Ramona Bronson, resident of Ventnor and member of Moms Demand Action for Guns Sense in America, encouraged the Board to take the resolution back to Committee because there are too many areas that are debatable. The Moms Demand Action for Guns support the Second Amendment and are legal gun owners (opposed to Resolution No. 123).

Gary Green, resident of Linwood, stated that legislators in Virginia backed off gun laws when people united (in support of Resolution No. 123).

Vikki Jeffries, resident of Mays Landing, stated she is an elementary school teacher in Atlantic City and spends 20 minutes a month teaching children how to hide from an active shooter.

Christopher Stytler, resident of Egg Harbor Township, thanked the Board for taking this bold step. This resolution is not useless and dangerous and urged the Board to make a statement to Trenton (in support of Resolution No. 123).

Rose Hickerson, resident of Absecon, stated she believed in the Second Amendment. Guns are not the problem, people are the problem (in support of Resolution No. 123).

Eileen Toland, resident of Northfield, stated that no one wants to take away the guns of gun owners (opposed to Resolution No. 123).

Adam Hood, resident of Egg Harbor Twp., stated the fees for permits have increased significantly. Second Amendment group are saying enough is enough (in support of Resolution No. 123).

Nadine Flynn, resident of Egg Harbor Twp. and retired Army Lieutenant Colonel stated Moms Demand Action for Guns Sense in America is against gun violence not guns The real deaths are happening with accidents and suicides (opposed to Resolution No. 123).
Mike Santoro, stated Second Amendment group does not want any more infringing gun laws on law abiding gun owners (in support of Resolution No. 123).

Carol resident of Upper Township, read a prepared statement on behalf of Moms Demand Action for Guns Sense in America (opposed to Resolution No. 123).

Sandy Hickerson, resident of Absecon, thanked the Board for preparing this resolution and standing up for the Second Amendment. (in support of Resolution 123).

Roma, resident of Margate, stated she hadn’t heard anyone mention the name of the young boy that was killed in Pleasantville. We have to prevent people from illegally getting guns (opposed to Resolution No. 123).

The above-mentioned motion was adopted by the following roll call: AYES: Bertino, Coursey, Gatto, Kern, Risley and Formica. NAYS: Bennett and Fitzpatrick.
