

Atlantic County Government Job Fair – March 23

Looking for an exciting career with competitive salaries, stability and great benefits? Consider the variety of positions available with Atlantic County government, including engineers and planners, omnibus operators, animal attendants, food service workers, nurses, accounting and finance positions, and more.

“Working for county government can be extremely rewarding,” stated County Executive Dennis Levinson. “We are looking for responsible, quality candidates to join our team and help us provide the best services for our residents.”

The county will conduct on-the-spot interviews for these positions and more at a job fair on Saturday, March 23, 10 am – 4 pm, at the Galloway library branch, 306 E. Jimmie Leeds Road, Galloway. No appointment is necessary but those interested can save time by first applying online at www.aclink.org/human-resources.

“Our benefit package is very attractive and includes medical, dental and vision coverage; pension; paid holidays, vacation and sick leave,” added Levinson. “If you’ve never explored a position with county government, now is a great time to do so.”
